Questions to Academia

- How can Academic (theoretical) and Civil Society (practical) work can be better interconnected?
- How can experience-based reflection and analysis of Civil Society can be made more visible and relevant for Academia?
- How can complementary academic evidence and civil society experience be made more relevant for political decision-making processes?

Questions to Civil Society

- How can we establish more and better international cooperation in the sense of a “Global Civil Society”?
- What are our global common interests as Civil Society?
- How can we support each other better?
- How can we get more independent from state funding?
- How can we develop modern, resilient and sustainable organizational structures (which can be models for other parts of society)?

Questions to (Political) Decision-Makers

- How can we establish Civil Society-friendly funding structures? (which truly support civil society instead of overloading and exploiting them)
- How can civil society be protected from anti-democratic aggression and de-legitimization?
- How can the vital role of Civil Society for Democracy be made understood better?
