Questions to Academia

- What opportunities do you see for inviting NGOs to share their experiences and expertise within the academic sphere? How might we collaborate?

Questions to Civil Society

- How can we combat disinformation and Russian propaganda, which undermine the value of reliable knowledge?
- How can we 'translate' academic knowledge for people outside the academic community?

Questions to (Political) Decision-Makers

- Are politicians aware that public funds in the EU are being used to finance numerous illiberal initiatives which masquerade as civil society activities but in reality serve Russia's cognitive warfare (particularly within the anti-human rights and anti-gender movements, and specifically within the Catholic Church)? What action do you intend to take?
